

Lewis Carter

President
Röchling Engineering Plastics North America

Lewis H. Carter, born on September 13, 1960 in Shamokin, Pennsylvania, earned a degree in business administration from the University of West Virginia. He entered the working world with an internship in 1984 at Röchling Engineering Plastics in Haren, Germany. There, Carter learned about the commercial and technical aspects of the plastics business. He subsequently began his formal career as a sales engineer at Röchling Machined Plastics in Latrobe, Pennsylvania. In 1988, he became managing director there. In 1989, in addition to his duties at Röchling Machined Plastics, Carter was appointed President of Röchling Engineered Plastics in Gastonia, North Carolina. Under his leadership, an additional site was established in Ontario, California, in 1992. In February 2007, Carter was also named CEO of the Canadian plastics specialist Symplastics Limited in Orangeville, Ontario.
