

Evelyn Thome

Executive Board Röchling Group
CFO

Evelyn Thome graduated with a degree in business administration from the University of Trier.

She began her career in 1993 as a field auditor for auditing firm Coopers & Lybrand Deutsche Revision AG in Cologne. In 1995, she moved to Gerolsteiner Brunnen GmbH & Co., where she initially worked as a financial analyst before advancing to the role of head of department two years later. Her duties in this role entailed commercial management of the company's subsidiaries.

In 2000, Thome joined Gebrüder Röchling KG as a financial analyst, later taking on the role of Head of Group Controlling in 2002. Between 2003 and 2007, she also served as Commercial Director of Röchling Automotive AG & Co. KG. In 2007, she took on the role of Commercial Director of Röchling Automotive Duncan LLP in the USA and in the following year (2008) was appointed Commercial Manager of the Europe North region. In May 2017, Thome was named Executive Vice President (CFO) of Röchling Automotive.

Since May 2019, she is responsible for Finance (CFO), as a member of the Röchling Group's Executive Board. In addition, Thome took on the role of CFO of Röchling Medical in January 2020.
